Dear Dr. Schneid,

I hasten to reply to your airgraph dated 2nd March, and to tell you that I shall not be able for a considerable time to go any deeper into the question raised in your airgraph. In fact, I do not think that the book you suggest is suitable for me, but I still hope that you might be able to do so another type of book that touches your field of knowledge, but this would take a certain time to find.

This is all I can say at the moment, but I will write to you as soon as something occurs to me.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Dr. Schneid,

I have received your airgraph of the 26th November, and thank you very much for your invitation, but I really regret it that I feel unable to make use of your kind offer.

There is no doubt that a publication on the Dura-Europos Frescoes, as envisaged by you, would be an interesting undertaking, but I am afraid it is rather beyond the usual range of a private firm to do a book like that. You may be assured that I have well considered your suggestion, and I would have been willing to carry out the work if I saw the slightest commercial prospect in the matter, but I am afraid that I do not think that I could find a large enough market.

I hope that my rather pessimistic view in this matter will not prevent you from offering me another book if you should happen to do one. I could well imagine that you are able to do a book on Jewish Art from a more general point of view, which is more in my line. If you think that you could consider this I should like to hear from you at your early convenience.

Yours sincerely,
W. Hornaday
